

Supervision Policy

Policy Statement

Y Canberra Region aims to provide the highest level of Active and Effective Supervision to promote the healthy growth and development of its participants. We acknowledge active and effective supervision as integral to creating environments that are safe and responsive. Y People are committed to the Safeguarding Children Policy to protect participants from any harm or hazard that may arise while participating in our programs and services.

Objectives

- To provide active and effective supervision at all times.
- To plan and implement programs, services and environments supportive of active and effective supervision.
- To guide and support Y People to provide active and effective supervision practice and strategies.
- To reduce accidents, prevent injury, risk and harm to participants.
- To ensure staffing supports participants to engage in programs and services in a safe manner.
- To minimise the risk of a participant being unaccounted for within a service or program.
- To provide support guidelines in the event that a participant is accounted for in program or service.
- To outline the steps to follow if a participant is not collected from a program or service.

Procedures

Y People will...

- accept and maintain a duty of care for Y Canberra Region participants.
- implement and maintain any required regulated staff / participant ratios (Childrens Services - CS).
- ensure premises designed or obtained facilitate active and effective supervision.
- where required develop and implement indoor and outdoor Supervision Plans.
- follow Workplace Health and Safety risk management procedures.
- regularly reflect on supervision strategies.
- ensure Y People under the age of 18 are supervised and not left alone.
- engage and supervise participants engaging in experiences and pro social behaviour.
- practise active and effective supervision by scanning the environment when engaging in conversation with parents / guardians, participants and visitors.
- position themselves in a way that allows for maximum visibility e.g. sight and sound supervision.
- acknowledge the need to increase supervision when implementing 'high risk experiences' by increasing the ratio of adults / participants.
- acknowledge and respond to any relevant cues and signals that indicate the need for supervision support.
- support and supervise routine times to bridge the gap between the familiar and unfamiliar.
- be available to support participant's expression, emotional resilience and pro social behaviours.
- recognise participant's feelings of distress, fear or discomfort and acknowledge this may require time to resolve and require further effective supervision support strategies.
- adjust supervision levels to consider the the age, skills and dynamic of the participants in the group.
- provide equipment, furnishings and experiences that foster effective supervision whilst allowing participants to have privacy and independence
- observe, engage and supervise participants during meal times

- ensure participants bathrooms are maintained in a way that enables active and effective supervision (in accordance with the Safeguarding Policies). Where facilities don't allow for direct supervision a procedure is required for participants to inform Y People (they may be provided with a toilet pass or asked to use toilets in pairs).
- have clear procedures for a participant who is unaccounted for so they are located as soon as possible.
- be aware of the importance of communicating with each other about their location in the environment.
- implement consistent supervision strategies and refrain from performing other duties while being responsible for the supervision of participants
- use redirection to prevent inappropriate and unsafe behaviour.
- inform their teams of supervision requirements and any identified supervision risks.

Parents / Guardians will

- where required sign their participant in and out of the service on arrival and departure.
- ensure they have spoken to a Y Person to facilitate a smooth transition and exchange any information that may support their participants daily experience.
- consider the safety of participants when arriving at the program / service e.g. Car park
- advise Y People of alternative emergency contacts / authorised nominees collecting participants.
- support Y People by updating the emergency contact / authorised nominees details as required.
- support Y People to keep participants safe by closing doors and gates behind them.
- collect participants from programs / services before the stated closing time.
- acknowledge that if they are not contactable, if all emergency contacts are exhausted and the participant is not collected Y People will inform the police of the missing participant and follow their instruction.

Runaway Participant

If a participant has “Runaway” from the group Y People will...

1. ensure a complete and comprehensive roll call is conducted to ensure participants are in attendance, accounted for or unaccounted for.
2. appoint a responsible Y Person (more than one if able) to conduct an immediate search of the indoor and outdoor facility. (for excursions if required search the local area).
3. group participants to reduce the staffing level and relocate to an area that allows for active and effective supervision.
4. seek assistance from the immediate environment and community to look for the missing participant e.g. teachers, other participants.
5. inform Nominated Supervisors / Management of the situation as soon as safely able.
6. if required conduct a wider search (take a mobile phone in order to report back any developments).
7. inform parents / guardians, explaining the implementation the facility and local area search which has resulted in not being able to locate their participant.
8. discuss with the parent / guardian any suggestions as to where the search could be directed e.g. a relative or friend's house nearby.
9. inform the police of the missing participant and follow their instruction, once all strategies are exhausted.
10. record the steps taken during the incident, including last known time and location the child was seen.
11. record and log a detailed incident report within 24 hours via SOLV
12. reflect, evaluate and review any supervision, arrival and departure procedures and strategies
13. where required after the incident, Y People are debriefed and offered counselling.
14. ensure any media correspondence is referred directly to the Y Canberra CEO
