- If the Parent / Guardian beliefs and practices are in conflict with recommendations from Red Nose Y Canberra Region Services will not endorse an alternative practice, unless the service is provided with written advice from a medical practitioner.
- If a medical condition exists that prevents a child from being placed on their back, the alternative resting practice must be directed in writing by a medical practitioner.
- At no time will a child or young person's face be covered with bed linen.
- To prevent wriggling down under bed linen infants will be placed with their feet closest to the bottom end of the cot as recommended by Red Nose Australia.
- Quilts and duvets will not be used as bed linen. Pillows, soft toys, lamb's wool and cot bumpers will not be used.
- Light bedding is the preferred option, which must be tucked in to prevent children and infants from pulling bed linen over their head.
- Sleeping bags (no hood) with a fitted neck and arm holes are recommended as bed linen and encourage an infant to rest on their back.
- Cots will meet Australian Safety Standards and have the correctly sized mattress, leaving no space between the rails and the mattress.
- Children will NOT be put to bed with bottles.
- A record of sleep times will be maintained for parents / guardians.
- Opportunities are provided for rest and relaxation to allow periods to stop and rejuvenate across the day. These could include but are not limited to yoga, meditation exercises and quiet play experiences to promote a child's mindfulness and wellbeing.
